Attention Parents and Guardians,

The Rorie-Galloway Day Camp and all the other camp recreation programs offered by the City of Mesquite must be defined and/or clarified as recreational programs and are not to be considered as “child-care” programs.

The City of Mesquite and all other Texas municipalities are eligible to be exempt from State day-care licensing provided a Standards of Care ordinance is approved annually. In Mesquite, a Standards of Care ordinance is in place, which allows the Parks and Recreation Department to offer a wide variety of recreation programs that have become extremely popular at our recreation centers. Our Standards of care will be made available to you.

The City of Mesquite is not licensed by the State to provide child care programs.
