1. Richard Larson, Chairman, called the meeting to order. It was determined a quorum existed.
2. Barbara Dunn made a motion to approve the March minutes as read; Beverly Hollingsworth seconded the motion. The minutes were approved.
3. Several staffing changes have occurred at the Main Library. Rachel Kubosumi is the new Library Assistant in Technical Services, Luis Monreal is the new Senior Library Assistant in Circulation, and Caesar Contreras has been hired as a page. Kelli Ponce will help out at the City of Mesquite Economic Development Department for a few days. The library staff is preparing for Summer Reading Club and will participate in the Rodeo Parade.
4. Virginia Mundt discussed March staff reports. Circulation, library cards, and library eCards increased. Texas has not renewed the contract with Heritage Quest and is considering other genealogical programs in its place. Library staff members are training to implement and maintain Google My Business, the library's new business page. Virginia Mundt took Advisory Board members on a tour of the Technical Services and Public Services rooms to view the new cubicles.
5. Barbara Dunn made a motion the meeting be adjourned; Beverly Hollingsworth seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned.
