Celebrate Black History Month

Throughout February, the City of Mesquite will host events, programs, and activities in recognition of Black History Month. HMI presents Time Travel Tuesdays, a social media series highlighting notable Black residents. Programs are also offered at the Main Library all month long, including one about Black inventors. The Arts Center offers Black History Month-themed youth art kits while supplies last. And don't miss Parks & Recreation's special event at Eastfield celebrating with community partners on Feb. 21 from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. Enjoy food, student music, dance and featured keynote speaker Courtney Brazile. Pothole Blitz and Road Report Update

The City of Mesquite Streets Division recently completed repairs and an asphalt overlay on Calle Hanby, improving roadway conditions for residents and drivers. Similar repairs and an asphalt overlay on Calle Williams are underway and nearing completion. Also, crews repaired 80 potholes during the most recent Pothole Blitz. Events at the Mesquite Arts Center

February brings live theatre and a festive winter celebration to the Mesquite Arts Center. The Mesquite Arts Theatre presents the stage adaptation of “Murder on the Orient Express,” performing weekends through Feb. 22. Families are also invited to enjoy the Second Annual Winter GLOW Fest on Feb. 14, a free Valentine’s Day evening filled with glowing art, live entertainment, food vendors, and activities for all ages.
