

2018 Meritorious Conduct Awards Civilian of the Year – Sharon Moore

The Mesquite Police Department is proud to recognize Sharon Moore with the “Civilian of the Year Award for 2017.”

Sharon joined the Mesquite Police Department in 2005 as a detention officer and recently took on a new position as Public Service Professional (PSP).

As a PSP, Sharon has a wide variety of job duties, including the recent radio installation. This project was complicated with firm deadlines and tedious updates that followed. The project was successful in large part to her tireless dedication and relentless attention to detail.

Sharon also put in numerous hours assisting Police Explorer Jaquelin Jamaica in her pursuit to attend college. Sharon’s hard work does not go unnoticed or unappreciated. She displays professionalism in everything she does. She also lends her support in diabetes prevention campaigns and women’s health awareness.

Sharon’s previous awards include the CPA Civilian of the Month.
