The types of questions you will see on the 2020 Census

Census 2020 will determine how much federal funding Mesquite will receive for education, healthcare, housing and more so it's important that everybody takes part. The 2020 Census will ask questions like the number of people living at an address. This information is used to help State and local officials to draw boundaries for congressional districts, state legislative districts and school districts. Mayor's Column on Transparency

One of the City of Mesquite's strategic goals is "High Performing/ Transparent Government." This week, Mayor Bruce Archer discussed the goal in the Mesquite News. Mesquite has earned all five transparency stars available through the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts' Transparency Stars Program and in 2017 was just the sixth city in Texas to earn that distinction. To learn about how Mesquite is working to be more transparent and open to the public, read the full article.
