- Letter grade of "P" will be accepted

An "accredited college or university" is an institution of higher education that is accredited or authorized by one of the following agencies: Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Higher Learning Commission (formerly North Central Association of Colleges and Schools), Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges, Western Association of Schools and Colleges. Coursework from a foreign college or university will also be accepted after being reviewed by an agency that is certified by the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES) to determine the course taken, credit received and letter grade earned.

Work Schedule

Once you have completed all required training, you will be assigned to a shift: A, B or C. Minimum staffing is 48 firefighters per shift.

Essentially, you would work every third day: 24 hours on duty, 48 hours off duty. This means that when you are on duty, the fire station is your home.

You will sleep at the station, cook meals with your coworkers, be responsible for the upkeep of the lawn, and be responsible for the cleanliness of the station. Firefighters take turns completing these duties.

You will be constantly surrounded by your shift and you are not permitted to leave the station to run personal errands or go home while on shift.
