

REAL. TEXAS. SERVICE. CHAMPION

Dennis Arnold, Police Officer

Dennis is a Police Officer in the Mesquite Police Department and is the Police Academy Coordinator and training officer.

Dennis plays an integral role in the development of Mesquite's next generation of officers. He was involved in the creation of an in-house Basic Peace Officer's Course, which is currently in the 14th class.

In addition to his training duties, Dennis also performs multiple community assignments, including being a part of the DEA's "Drug Take Back Campaign" to safely dispose of unused prescription drugs.

Dennis displays that he CAREs with an ethical approach to meeting the needs of police officers and the city he helps to protect.
