Enforcement of Solid Waste fees begins July 1

As part of Mesquite's Clean City Initiative, the City Council approved new requirements for its solid waste customers last summer to help beautify Mesquite through the reduction of scattered trash and debris. Fees for violations of the ordinance will begin to be issued beginning July 1. Learn more here.

Remember the 4 D's

Summer is here and that means mosquitoes in Texas. Prevention is the best defense against the West Nile virus. It's important to remember the four D's: Dusk and dawn, Dress, DEET and Drain. Learn more about how to protect yourself this summer here.

Copeland Park construction

The Mesquite City Council awarded a construction contract at the June 6 City Council meeting for the new 11-acre Copeland Park. The park, located at Creek Crossing Road and Mesquite Valley Road, will be developed in phases. Read more here.
