

REAL. TEXAS. SERVICE. CHAMPION

Macrina Aguilar, Parks and Recreation

Macrina Aguilar is a Special Events and Sponsorship Coordinator for the Parks and Recreation Department.

Macrina plans all the City's special events hosted by Parks and Recreation, including the Daddy Daughter Dance, Pumpkinfest and Christmas in the Park. She coordinates all the logistical details and works with a wide variety of vendors and businesses to ensure the best experience is had by all. Through Macrina's work, residents are able to enjoy many free or low-cost family friendly events to create lasting memories.

Macrina is an excellent planner. Her organizational skills, attention to detail and creativity make her a key member of the team. She is hard working and always maintains a positive attitude with a bright smile.

Macrina's attitude, skills and experience are not only greatly appreciated by the City, but also by the vendors with whom she works. Her work with local business partners is detailed and conscientious. Because of this, Macrina serves as an incredible ambassador for the City of Mesquite.
