

REAL. TEXAS. SERVICE. CHAMPION

Rose Carabio, Department of Housing and Community Services

Rose Carabio is a Victim Advocate for the Department of Housing and Community Services.

Rose walks through the criminal justice process step-by-step with victims of crimes. In her role, she also serves as a liaison to investigators on behalf of these victims.

Rose has been instrumental in creating the new Victim Advocate Program for the Mesquite Police Department. She ensures all victims are provided with a safe place to be heard and supported after suffering from a violent crime. Rose always shows compassion and efficiency in the work she does for the community.

Through her deeply impactful work, Rose is able to help bring stability and comfort to people who are going through challenging and vulnerable times.
