Thomasson Square Public Meeting

Last night, the City Council hosted a public meeting to discuss the Thomasson Square project. More than 330 residents attended the meeting held at Vanston Middle School to listen to a presentation about the project, brief the survey results and provide the public an opportunity to comment. To learn more about the project and review the survey results, visit www.cityofmesquite.com/thomassonsquare.

Online Agenda Packets

City Council agenda packets will be posted online today for the February 1 City Council meeting. These packets will contain the same information received by City Councilmembers with the exception of confidential or private information. Packets will be posted at www.cityofmesquite.com/councilagenda.

New Industry Locates in Mesquite

We Pack Logistics, a growing national supply chain management firm providing major consumer packaged goods customers with packaging, warehousing and transportation services, signed a lease for 300,000 square foot in the Skyline Business Park Building One at 951 S. Town East Boulevard. The company is launching operations in the facility in January for a new customer contract. The Skyline Business Park Building One is a state of the art rail-served facility totaling 457,000 square feet on 27 acres.
