B. Purpose.

The purpose of the variance process is to provide a narrowly limited means by which relief may be granted from unforeseen applications of this Zoning Ordinance.

C. Authority.

The Board may, in specific cases, after written notice and a public hearing, authorize a variance from the terms of this Zoning Ordinance in accordance with the approval standards in this section.

 - (1) approval;
 - (2) approval with modifications;

K. Approval Standards.

1. In order to grant a zoning variance from the terms of this Zoning Ordinance the Board shall find that:
 - a. The variance is not contrary to the public interest; and
 - b. Due to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the ordinance would result in unnecessary hardship (See K.2. below); and
 - c. The spirit of this Zoning Ordinance is observed and substantial justice is done.
2. If special conditions exist, then the Board may consider the following as grounds to make a determination whether compliance with the Mesquite Zoning Ordinance (“MZO”), as applied to a structure that is the subject of the variance, would result in unnecessary hardship:
 - a. if the financial cost of compliance with the MZO is greater than 50 percent of the appraised value of the structure as shown on the most recent appraisal roll certified to the assessor for the City under Section 26.01, Tax Code, or successor and as amended, then the Board may find that to be an unnecessary hardship; or

- b. if compliance with the MZO would result in a loss to the lot on which the structure is located of at least 25 percent of the area on which development may physically occur, then the Board may find that to be an unnecessary hardship; or
- c. if compliance with the MZO would result in the structure not being in compliance with a requirement of a City ordinance, building code, or other requirement, then the Board may find that to be an unnecessary hardship; or
- d. if compliance with the MZO would result in the unreasonable encroachment on an adjacent property or easement, then the Board may find that to be an unnecessary hardship, or
- e. if compliance with the MZO would result in the City considering the structure to be a nonconforming structure, then the Board may find that to be an unnecessary hardship.
