

Lifesaving Award #04
August 13, 2016

On August 13, 2016, Ambulance 05 and Truck 02 were dispatched to an unconscious person. Upon arrival, paramedics were met by Mesquite police officers who were in the process of administering CPR. Paramedics took over CPR and the patient was defibrillated and given an advanced airway. The patient was given IV medications and CPR was continued in route to the hospital where the patient regained a pulse. This patient was discharged from the hospital at a later date.
